

MADISON SOLONS
HAVE MUCH TO DO

The Hudnell Grain Bill
Will Come Up This Week for a Decisive Settlement.

THE BARBERS' BILL

It Passes the Senate, to the Surprise of Even the Promoters of the Measure.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Madison, April 27.—The ease with which the barbers license bill went through the upper house furnished
one of the surprises of the week.
Only five votes being recorded against it to final passage. There was considerable opposition manifest
when the bill was up for advancement to third reading, and Senator Hud-nell, who introduced it, was already for a fight on the floor, but found it was not necessary when senators who had voted against it all along calmly cast their votes in favor of its passage. A similar bill has already been killed in the assembly, and the senate's action was probably due to a desire to retaliate by putting the bill "up to" the lower house. But whatever the reason, the senate's action has given the friends of the bill
a courage which means a lively fight for the bill in the assembly.

Final Adjournment
The date on which final adjournment will be reached is still a matter of guesswork. A large number of bills have come out of committees this week, but many of them are measures which bring a contest on the floor,
especially in the assembly, where oratory, vulgarly known as "rag chewing" is prevalent, and little has been accomplished so far as real results are concerned. May 23 is the earliest date seriously thought of, and some predict that it will be a week later before the work is done.

Hudnell Bill
Another breathing spell was given the Hudnell bill providing for a... consin system of grain inspection at Superior in the senate Friday,
when Senator Hudnell made his motion for reconsideration of the vote
by which the bill was killed Thursday evening, and the motion was laid over until next Wednesday. One vote would have changed the result,
and no effort will be spared to get that vote, while the opposition can be depended on to see that nobody gets away.

SUNDAY RESTING
FOR RAILWAY MEN

The Idea Proves Most Successful, and Large Trains Are Sent Out
This Morning.

There were miles of cars in the local yards of the Chicago and North-Western railway company this morning and long and heavily laden freight trains were sent out in all directions during the day. The movement of coal was especially noticeable, whole trains of cars loaded to the brim with the product of the Illinois, Indiana and Hocking Valley mines being on the move northward.

Sunday Observance
The accumulation of cars was due in part to the Sunday observance rule which is now being put in force on the North-Western system, but as the local yard and switching crews were able to handle them in good shape and without hindering or delaying regular traffic. It will be conceded that Sunday rest for the men is a good move and one that will not prove detrimental to the company's interests.

Idea Popular
Interviews with the employees show that the idea is a popular one with them and it is reasonable to assume that they will readily co-operate with the company officials in their endeavors to inaugurate a proper observance of Sunday in that portion of the railway world over which they have supervision, viz., the North-Western line.

FROST DAMAGES SMALL FRUIT

Cherries, Strawberries and Apples in Southern Illinois Injured.

Alto Pass, Ill., April 27.—The mercury touched the freezing point here Saturday night and young tomato plants suffered. The recent cold weather has killed the cherries, greatly damaged strawberries and some growers assert that the apple crop is ruined. If their judgment is correct the damage to southern Illinois is incalculable.

LADY ELGIN SURVIVOR IS DEAD

Mrs. Margaret Burke of Milwaukee
Expires at Her Home.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 27.—Mrs.
Margaret Burke, one of the last survivors of the Lady Elgin disaster, is dead at her home, 165 Ogden street.
She was 65 years old and the widow of Edward Burke, a pioneer resident of the third ward, and with him attended the ill-fated steamer excursion to Chicago on the Lady Elgin. Both were among the few who escaped
death that night.

NEW MEMBERS
ADMITTED SUNDAY

The English Lutheran Church Has an Addition to Its Number of Communicants.

Five new members were received yesterday at the meeting of the English Lutheran church, held at the rooms of the Caledonian society. The organizer of the church, Rev. A. C.
Anda, of Chicago, conducted the meeting, which was one of special interest. Although only recently organized, the church is steadily growing in both numbers and working efficiency and the prospects of the society for a substantial future are bright.

It is expected that Rev. Anda will return to Jamesville next Thursday and will bring with him a young man from the Lutheran seminary in Chicago who will take up the work as pastor of the local church and serve in that capacity during the summer.
The church numbers about thirty members, at present and there is now talk of looking up a suitable location for a church edifice, so that when the body finds itself strong enough financially and numerically,
building operations can be inaugurated and a church home erected.

RUSSIA IS BELIEVED TO BE MERELY MAKING A BLUFF

It Is Thought That the Demand Is Simply to Break Japan-English Alliance.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
London, April 27.—A strong belief in government circles is that Russia in her demands on China relative to Manchuria, is trying to perpetrate a bluff to see how strong the Anglo-Japanese alliance is. It is believed that Russia will make a display of force in an endeavor to cause England to break from her new alliance, but if the alliance resists with counter demonstration it will back down.

of the Men's Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

"Successful Living" was the topic
at the men's meeting held at the Y.

BAD WRECK ON IRON MOUNTAIN

A Missouri Pacific Work
Train Crashes Into Stock Cars at Buffalo, Kan.

MANY ARE KILLED

Work Train Backed Into
the Stock Cars Around Sharp Curve, Smash-
ing the Caboose.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
Buffalo, Kan., April 27.—By the wrecking of a Missouri Pacific stock
train and a work train last night eleven men were killed and twenty-five so badly injured that it is feared
they will all die.

Dead Laborers
The dead are all Greek and Italian laborers with the exception of one work boss who was an American.
Four of the injured are in a dying condition and the others are all very seriously injured.

Misread Orders
The accident was caused by the misreading of orders and the work train backed into the stock train at a sharp curve and the caboose of the work train was smashed in a moment.
The wounded were removed to Cool-eyville.

VENEZUELAN ARMY

have also been defeated at Barquisi-metto, San Felipe and Moron. Large numbers of wounded government sol-

ed here also that the entire Andes

Dash for Pole.

New York, April 27.—Anthony Fl-ala, who is to head the Ziebler Arctic expedition, was a passenger on the steamship St. Paul. Mr. Flala said:

prospects for the expedition are good. The America will sail as soon as she is ready but I cannot give the date."

GOLDEN RULE JONES
FLAYS PARRY'S SPEECH

Declares Manufacturers' Association
Must Become More Tolerant and Liberal or Go to the Wall.

Toledo, O., April 27.—Mayor Jones
in a speech at Golden Rule Park scored President Parry of the National Manufacturers' association for his attack on union labor at the New Orleans convention.

"President Parry and the radical following that dominated at the convention declaring war on what was called the vicious and lawless element of organized labor," said the mayor,
"really themselves represented the vicious and lawless element among the manufacturers. They were intolerant of any opinions contrary to the spirit of Parry's annual report, in which he characterized the law of the trades unions as the law of the Huns and the Vandals."

"The Manufacturers' association will either manifest a more tolerant and liberal American spirit or it will go to the wall. Indeed, that is very likely to be its fate if it is continued a one-man organization, which it has evidently very largely been during the last year."

GIVES $5,000,000 TO OLD LOVER

Widow Wins Fortune to Husband of Another Woman.

Omaha, Neb., April 27.—Through a youthful love affair George W. Gunther, an employee of the Burlington
railroad at Lincoln, has come into possession of a large fortune. He was once engaged to marry a young woman in the East, but the engagement was broken and later the young woman married a wealthy mine owner named Pinger. A few years ago Mrs.
Pinger's husband died and last winter
Mrs. Pinger went to Lincoln to visit her former lover and his wife. In the winter Mrs. Pinger died in a hospital in Kansas City after bequeathing to Gunther several gold mines estimated to be worth $5,000,000.

MAFIA DRIVES
JURORS SWAY

Fear That They Will Be Killed, Keeps New York Veniremen
From Court.

HALF ARE GONE

Coroner Has Been Forced to Postpone Hearing Until Later, When New Jury Is Drawn.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
New York, April 27.—Fear that the Italian Mafia would wreak vengeance upon them for serving on a jury which was liable to convict several of their members of murder has caused the majority of the venire for the coroner's jury to leave the city.

Madonia's Body
The jury was to hear testimony in the case of Madonia, the man whose body was found in a barrel some days ago and who is thought to have been murdered by the Mafia for fear
he would give away their secrets.

Few Jurors
Few jurors were present when the case was called and it was learned that the majority had left the city through fear of having to serve on the jury.

France Agrees to Furnish Money and Troops to Quell Rebellion
in China.

Shanghai, April 27.—The governor of Kwang Si Province has just completed an agreement with France
whereby that country agrees to furnish the money and the troops necessary to quell the local rebellion.
This, it is believed, will lead to the annexation of the southern provinces
by France and the ultimate partition of China and the division of the same among the principal European powers.

Chinese officials here state that Japan has formally demanded that Russia evacuate Manchuria without any further delay.

WHITECAPS WHIP TWO GIRLS

Break into House at Bloomington, Ind., and Beat Women.

Bloomington, Ind., April 27.—At 1 o'clock in the morning thirty-eight masked men broke into a house on East Ninth street and whitecapped the Misses Rebecca and Ida Stephens, white, aged 18 and 16 years, and also whipped Joe Shively, aged 50 years.
The Stephens girls lived with their mother in the same house in which Shively had a room. The negro was whipped with a barbed wire and was hit in the eye with brass knuckles.
The older girl was whipped with barbed wire, and the younger one with apple switches, but neither is dangerously injured. Many of the whitecaps were recognized, and warrants will be sworn out for their arrest.

German Counterfeiters.

Berlin, April 27.—Seven counterfeit-had American connections.

LEPERS MAY BE SET FREE SOON

Hawaiian Legislature Votes to Re-examine All Afflicted Persons on Molokai Island.

Honolulu, April 27.—The house yesterday adopted the committee report recommending that the board of health re-examine all the lepers isolated on Molokai island and release any that are unaffected or who have recovered sufficiently as to not spread the disease.

The report makes the claim that many are wrongfully detained at the leper settlement and denounces
the segregation as a failure and subterfuge. The action has caused considerable discussion here. The leper settlement is a large one, and has been a problem to the government officials. It is asserted that the plan of native members of the Hawaii legislature is ultimately to free lepers from the isolated district and allow them the full freedom of the island.

LUNCH IS GIVEN IN HONOR OF HIS MAJESTY KING EDWARD

Lord Rosebery Entertains Royalty at a Dinner in Naples.

Naples, April 27.—Lord Rosebery
gave a lunch this morning in honor of King Edward. Among the other guests were Queen Marie Amalia of Portugal, Lady Haldon, Prince and Princess Candrina, the Duke and Duchess Di Laurenzania, Sir Charles Harding, Major Stanley Clarke, non Seymour Fortescue and Captain Pon-sonby.

STATE NOTES

Walter Goodland, son of Judge Goodland, of Appleton, is now sole owner of the Racine Times, having bought out his former partner, V. W.
Lathrop. The paper will continue to be independent.

Mrs. Martha Gessner of Milwaukee
answers her husband's petition for divorce with the allegation that she has done nothing that would warrant the decree and that her husband is an anarchist.

The Fond du Lac people aver that the project of building an electric line along the east shore of Lake Winnebago now gives promise to consummation. Some $800,000 is needed to finance the undertaking.

A Chicago firm that agreed to take $125,000 of the bonds of La Crosse county has backed out and now an effort will be made to sell the securities to the state. They were issued for the erection of a courthouse.

Miss Susan Keels Swandale, eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Swan-dale of Greenville, S. C., was married to Charles C. Allen, son of the millionaire tanner of Kenosha, Wis.

Over 2,000 people die in Wisconsin every year of consumption. This is the statement made to the legislature
by Assemblyman Karel in an argument in favor of an appropriation of $100,000 for the establishment of a hospital for persons affected with tuberculosis.

George Helm of Racine eloped with a married woman, Augusta McCarthy, who is eight years his senior. Latter Helm returned and begged the forgiveness of his wife and family, relating amid tears a story that would indicate that he had been practically kidnapped by his woman companion.

Misses Phoebe and Libbie Heeley
of Bear Creek were burned to death in a fire that destroyed their homes.
They were aged women and as it was commonly believed that they had a large sum of money in the house,
there is a suspicion that they were murdered for that money and later that the house was burned to cover up the crime.

PUMPING STATION
MAKING CHANGES

Must Have Two Boilers in Use All the Time, Hence the Rush.

One of the old boilers at the city pumping station is now in its temporary position outside the building and the work of removing another to a place beside it will now be taken up. Two boilers must be constantly kept in use at this place, hence all this extra work. When these two old boilers are in shape for using, the third boiler will then be removed from the pumping station
and the three new boilers installed therein.

MILES' REPORT
HINTS CRUELTY

Says He Found That
Many Philippine Citizens
Claimed To Have Been Mistreated.

BURNED AT STAKE

One Man Told of Extreme Practices Used by the Scouts...Doubted
Stories.

(Special by Scripps-Mellae.)
Washington, April 27.—Part of Gen.
Miles' report upon the Philippine situation and the condition of the army was made public today. It hints that army officers have resorted to cruel treatment of the natives.

Much Devastation
General Miles heard reports from all parts of the islands and saw and talked with citizens who said they had suffered great injuries at the hands of the soldiers. Men had been burned to death and killed by the water cure.

Without Knowledge
He said that he had talked with men who told of atrocities which had been ordered by officers. Did not believe such could exist and not come to the notice of Commanding General Hughes.

AN OLD SETTLER
DIES IN BELOIT

The Father of Sheriff Appleby Passes Away at the Home of His Son.

(Special to The Gazette.)
Beloit, April 27.—J. T. Appleby, father of ex-Sheriff William Appleby,
and of Sheriff George Appleby, died at the home of his son on Spruce street at 5:30 this morning. Mr.
Appleby was in the eightieth year of his age and has been a resident of this state for nearly fifty years. He was born in London, England, in 1824 and came to this country, settling in Elgin, Illinois, fifty-three years ago. Here he conducted a meat market, later he moved to Be-loft where he was in the same business. He then moved to Avon where he went into the farming industry which he followed up to five years ago when he went to Beloit and made his home with his son, William. With Mr. Appleby's death Rock county loses one of its old and stable citizens. His wife died at Avon forty years ago. There remains to mourn his death five children, William, of Beloit; George, of Jamesville; Mrs.
Caroline Graves, of DeWitt, Iowa;
Mrs. Elizabeth Graves, of Evansville, and J. T. of Parker, S. D. Funeral
Wednesday at noon.

BLANK VOLLEY
DISPERSES MOBS

Twelve Thousand Persons Participated
in a Recent Riot at Kron-stadt.

Berlin, April 27.—The Lokal Anzei-ger has published details of the recent disorders at Kronstadt, Russia, which began in a brawl between troops and marines, and during which it was said some officers had been killed. The paper says the trouble developed into a regular riot, in which 12,000 persons took part. The rioters tore up paving stones and wrecked houses. An attempt to quell the disorder with a fire brigade failed, the fire apparatus being destroyed by the infuriated mob. Several police officers were wounded. Finally Admiral Lavrov, in command of the fortress at Kronstadt, arrived on the scene with a party of armed men who fired blank volleys at the rioters
and restored order.

DEAD WERE PILED UP IN LARGE HEAPS BEFORE TROOPS

Remarkable Bravery Displayed by the Derivishes of "Mad
Mullah."

London, April 27.—The war office has made public a dispatch received from Boholia today which states that Col. Gough has had a desperate engagement with the forces of the "Mad Mullah."

After seven hours of the most desperate fighting at close quarters he was compelled to retreat on account of the fact that he ran out of ammunition. The loss to the British forces was 213 killed and 428 wounded.

The bravery displayed by the derivishes was almost unprecedented, their dead being piled in heaps in front of the British Maxim guns, but they continued to fight fiercely to the very end. Their loss was 2,000 men. The dispatch says that the defeat of Col. Plunkett, a few days ago, was due to the fact that he ran out of ammunition.

ULYSSES GRANT WAS THE TOPIC

OF REV. WARNER'S SUNDAY SERMON.

IT WAS A VERY ABLE ADDRESS

The G. A. R., W. R. C. and S. V. Listened to an Interesting Talk on the Christian Soldier.

General Ulysses S. Grant, his life and his works, was the topic of Rev. Warner at the First Methodist church Sunday. It was memorial Sunday for General Grant and with battle flags and badges the William H. Sargent Post, No. 29, the Woman's Relief Corps and the Sons of Veterans were present to hear the divine tell of America's great and noble soldier. Rev. Warner's remarks follow in part.

Text: Tim. 2:3—"Thou therefore endure hardness as a soldier of Jesus Christ." During the summer of 1860 a modest young man, acting as coachman, drove a party of wealthy men from Galena, Illinois, to Janesville. They did not consider it worth while to invite their "teamster" to go with them sightseeing in your beautiful city. When supper time came some said "The teamster should not eat with us. His place is with the servants." But the party agreed finally that this coachman was a "fine fellow" and a "good driver," so he was asked to eat with them. The awful tempest of the civil war soon burst upon the country and the grim necessity arose for brother to meet brother in deadly conflict.

Then this unassuming coachman measured up to the peril of his country, and the people quickly came to the same conclusion that his Galena neighbors expressed, "that he was a good driver." He drove the enemy from Belmont and Fort Donelson, from Jackson and Vicksburg, the Gibraltar of the confederacy; from Chattanooga and Missionary Ridge, from Petersburg and through the wilderness. He became the man of Appomattox. So pleased were the people with "his driving," that they gave the reins of government into his hands during eight of the most troubled years of the reconstruction period. His trip around the world was a triumphal procession such as was accorded none of the Caesars.

Moses climbed Mount Nobo to die. So from Mount McGregor after having given his life fully to Christ and his hand to the Christian church, General Ulysses S. Grant drove into eternal renown here and everlasting life hereafter. No man succeeds without toil.

Problems make the scholar. Hardships are the taxes men pay for being great. Those who are looking for easy jobs are not on the right track. Even in civil and business life Americans must endure hardness if they would gain a competence or preserve their liberty, but the hardships of the soldier are often very great. His peril while in an enemy's country is constant. I never understood the meaning until I visited the national cemetery at Vicksburg. The nation has lavished large sums of money on this resting place of its patriot dead. The most lovely spot near the great battlefield has been selected. All the skill of the florists and landscape gardeners has been expended that this choice location might be as perfect as possible.

I turned to the superintendent and said, "One could almost afford to die for his country if he could be honored by a resting place in this beautiful cemetery." "Think so?" said he. "Do you see those hills yonder which seem to buttress the sky? They are the Chickasaws. Along their sides and summits they were strongly fortified by the confederates. In December, 1862, Sherman's brave troops tried to carry these fastnesses by assault but each time the columns were beaten back broken and bleeding, leaving the ground piled with their dead. That is what it cost to be buried here."

The following winter Grant took charge of the campaign against Vicksburg. His army lay encamped at Milliken Bend, above those forests yonder. These bottoms were all overflowed. The soldiers died by the hundred from malaria, measles and the smallpox. Over there, where the Mississippi is cutting a new channel for itself, large relays of troops were kept busy digging a canal over which, it was hoped, gunboats and transports might pass without peril from the guns of Vicksburg. But the confederates planted a battery on the heights opposite the mouth of the canal, commanding its entire length. Those engaged in the excavation were daily fed on grape and canister, shot and shell. This and all other attempts to pass Vicksburg without facing its fourteen miles of cannon proved a complete and deadly failure. All that winter the soldiers toiled, fought, suffered and died. That is what it cost to be buried here. In the spring Porter ranged his gunboats over behind the woods there, fully determined to run past the batteries or die in the attempt.

"The garrison at Vicksburg were keen witted Americans and although the night was dark and the river shrouded in mists, the moment the prow of the flagships turned the bend there, the scene was illuminated with bonfires and all these bluffs seemed like a volcano in eruption belching forth fire, smoke and iron; but on came the vessels. For two hours and a half those heroic seamen rode through the jaws of death and the teeth of hell. That is what it cost to be buried here." "I see," said I. "For a field of the dead rushed red on my sight."

And the clans of Colodien were scattered in flight. I saw as they made the fruitless assault on its works. When thousands of brave men fell and the creek in the ravine yonder ran thick with human blood; there came the long seige the sapping and the mining, the advancing of lines, the digging of new trenches. But all the while they were exposed to hand grenades and bursting shells until at last the half-starved garrison marched out as prisoners of war. I saw that General Grant shared with his men, their hardships and perils. God forgive me, for there is no one else who can, if after having seen in peace the battlefields he and his brave men saw in war. I ever cease to revere the flag or honor the general and his armies. The Christian has his crosses. The higher we push our lives the more complicated and intense will be the effort to sustain them. Especially is this true of the Christian soldier. War is a temporary repeal of every virtue and many a volunteer pure as his mother's kiss, came back from the contest marred and scarred by sin. But General Grant preserved his purity of thought and integrity of life. He said, "My mother taught me to ask forgiveness of God every night before I slept. I have always observed the teaching." At Appomattox, he said, after returning General Lee's sword and giving his prisoners the right to retain their horses, "Don't cheer, boys. They are our fellow countrymen and brothers." In Jerusalem, he said, the ovation for me is the city where my Savior was crucified. It is true, he did not join the Christian church until late in life, but his life bore the fruits of the Christian graces during all the terrible storm and stress of war. On Mount McGregor he won his greatest victory, for then he not only gave himself fully to Christ, but while suffering from an agonizing disease he held death back until he could finish his memoirs and thus place his family above want. Let us also "endure kindness as good soldiers for Christ" and then our country shall not want free institutions so long as "The shadows follow her mountains and her rivers flow down to the sea."

MANY GARDENS THROUGH THE CITY

Spring Brook Resident Will Revel in Fresh Vegetables During the Summer.

One of the things that helps to make summer life particularly enjoyable is a good garden. When one can go out and pull a few crisp radishes, or pluck a handful of choice lettuce, or husk a panful of succulent green corn and have it served up fresh and nice for dinner, then it is that life seems worth living and one takes a more rosy view of things in general.

Down in Spring Brook addition, gardening is now the order of the day. Nearly everybody residing in this section of the city has a garden spot and these are mostly plowed and are now being planted. Last week was a busy one for Thomas Spohn, for he it was who did nearly all the plowing.

POST FACTORY IS RUSHING CHANGES

Work of Modifying Molds Continues, and Ten Men Are Employed at Present.

Ten men are still employed at the Cement Post factory, even though the plant is shut down temporarily. It is no small work to change the moulds in which the posts are made and then men are busy yet on this work. As there are about 2500 of these moulds in all and 1800 of them had to be cut down, it has taken quite a bit of time.

The work has been greatly facilitated, however, by the use of a circular saw, which was installed for the purpose and the men have been able to change as high as 178 moulds in a day. The new machinery for the plant is expected now any day and when it is in place the factory will resume work with a full force.

FEW SUGGESTIONS FOR FRANCHISE

Flat Rails Should Be Used in Place of the T Pattern.

To the Editor of the Gazette: With regard to the proposed inter-urban railroad franchise I would suggest that a provision be made for the laying of flat, grooved rails in our city streets instead of the tee rails, which have been used heretofore. It is well known that the tee rail interferes with driving on the streets, and its use gives a railroad almost complete control of the center of the streets, upon which it is laid and is the frequent cause of accidents to vehicles. If the flat, grooved rail is used, there is no interference with driving.

It would also suggest that the company to which the franchise may be granted should be required to sprinkle the right of way during the summertime. Anyone who has watched the movement of a fast moving street car knows that great clouds of dust are stirred up during its passage, to the annoyance of everybody who has to use the street or who lives on adjoining property.

It will be remembered that these franchises are asked for for a long term of years, and that they will certainly increase in value as years go by. If they are valuable to their owners now, what will they be in ten years? To say nothing of fifty years from now. I believe, is the proposed life of the franchise. The city of Janesville, if its interests are properly safeguarded, can, before a franchise is granted, secure any reasonable requirement which it may desire, and now is the time for it to do so. Yours truly, A. M. VALENTINE.

RELIGION AS A BINDING TIE

REV. J. A. M. RICHEY PREACHES ON THE DIVISIONS.

TALKS FOR GENERAL UNITY

Deplores the Many Differences All Working for the Same Result.

The rector of Trinity church, the Rev. J. A. M. Richey, discoursed upon Church Unity yesterday morning, selecting for his text a passage from the gospel of the good shepherd, which was also the gospel for the day: John X 16: "And other sheep I have which are not of this fold. Them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd." The sermon, in part, follows:

Mankind as sheep had gone far astray and the eternal Son for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven to shepherd the human race. In His benevolent project He met opposition. He came unto His own and His own received Him not. And He finds opposition still and this is because there always has been and always will be in the world to the end those that love darkness rather than light. And how often is it true even of professing Christians, the children of light themselves, that the Savior is wounded in the house of His friends? But He stays not His merciful work. He places an open door before the world and those that hear His voice and enter are His sheep. His fold is a kingdom, not a republic. The authority is divine and comes from God downward, not from the people upward. This kingdom is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of truth. It is not a society of men or a human institution, seeking the kingdom of God, but it is that kingdom itself seeking mankind, the lost sheep. So the kingdom is the fold, the household of faith to which the good shepherd imparts His own divine authority saying "As my Father hath sent Me even so send I you." "Go ye into the world." "Lo! I am with you always, even unto the end."

Yet the energy with which the good shepherd, acting through the stewards of His mysteries goes out to seek the lost sheep and the work of the reformation which goes on as one by one they are brought into the fold. How magnificent the temple of pardon and patience over sin and persecution in the first centuries, till the empire became, nominally at least Christian. Then came the coveting and grasping and swaying of the temporal sword which confused the temporal with the spiritual and a house divided and striving to serve two masters had to fall. Out of this and upon it grew the doctrines of the papacy which resulted first in the schemes between the Roman and Greek portions of the Catholic church and later between the Roman and Anglican. After this began the organization of those various Christian sects which do not claim continuity with the visible church, which has come down to us with its threefold ministry, sacraments and worship from apostolic days.

We face a lamentable condition of affairs in the Christian world today. The historic Catholic church is divided into three great camps, the Greek, Anglican and Roman, and beside these there are nearly two hundred societies of human origin dating back from these works to three hundred years, and presenting a front so divided, as to make easy work for the father of lies. While one company is fighting for one truth, the next company has joined forces with Satan to fight against that truth. And so it is all along the line. But there is probably no body of Christians which does not regret this state of affairs, and it is a laudable fact that those most fully have made earnest attempt at healing the breach. The denominations in the past have attempted to gain unity by cutting away their differences, but it soon became evident that in obliterating those differences the last remnant of Christianity would annihilated. Their next charitable and most consistent effort at unity was to agree to differ, since no one of them could offer any better evidences of authority than the others. But their consciences soon told them that agreeing to differ was a poor sort of unity and that assertions and the opposing demands could not both be true. In an eastern city the other day an attempt was made not to cut off the various bones of contention but to harmonize the various truths in one body of truth. This is the only plan that offers fairness of dealing to all concerned.

Adventists, Baptists, Congregationalists, Presbyterians, Methodists, must be considered, but the one condition of unity—if it is to be real—must be that each holds not to his Hilloth, but accepts in good faith the whole body of truth. This being done, the denominations should be willing to take the last and most vital step by placing themselves in historic and sacramental continuity with the one fold of Christ in which the ministry of bishops, priests and deacons has ever been preserved, the sacraments faithfully administered, and every truth from Advent down to the Zuzins set forth without partiality.

What a glorious work could all Christian people do if there was but one fold under one good shepherd, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one apostolic ministry, authority and government, presenting a united front to the common enemy, and removing that religious confusion which causes so many to ask "What is truth?" We should endeavor to co-operate with that desire so near the sacred heart of Jesus. When the passion and death of Calvary were overshadowing Him, He prayed "that they also may be one in us that the world may believe that thou hast sent Me."

JANESVILLE AS OTHERS SEE IT

A Lady Visitor to the Bower City Writes of Its Beauty and Charms.

One of the things which impresses a stranger most on becoming familiar with Janesville is the absence of a well known blue coated, brass buttoned gentleman so frequently seen in nearly all other cities of the same size throughout the United States. One has a feeling of relief as he wanders from street to street with no official eye to watch his movements. And with the absence of these city protectors there comes a sense of security that seems at variance with the cause. To one who comes from a city where a policeman is stationed at every street corner and where many hundreds are engaged in enforcing the city's laws, he is led to ask, "Why are so few officers needed?" Is it that these few men who serve as the guards of the city have done their sworn duty so well that no law-breaker expects any favors at their hands? Is the criminal so surely brought to justice that he dare not violate the statutes of the city?

Occasionally one hears of the lawlessness of the city of Janesville, as condemned, by the good citizen. He rejoices to know that the pure minded would cast out all iniquity and sin; but what a desirable little city Janesville seems to be.

With its many churches its excellent schools, its young men's Christian association, which is doing so much to lead men in the right way. Its library; its league looking to better municipal administration; its planning for the rest for men as well as women, who may have occasion to carry, for a few hours, with no particular object to claim their attention. Sure this Rest will cause Satan and his helpers many an anxious hour. With a pleasant home like resort where one may wait the coming of his train and spend a tedious hours in conversation with friends from other localities, Janesville will possess an attraction not found in many large and more prosperous cities.

Years ago in our city the center of Main street stood a transfer street car. On entering this car from any other car, one was entitled to a transfer. This transfer car had seats and stoves and in those days before the city became so large it was a most convenient place in which to meet friends. The time to transfer was not limited and frequently old friends meeting there would sit and talk for a half an hour, enjoying to the utmost every minute and paying no attention when the car was called, which would take him home. The Rest recalls many a happy meeting in the old transfer.

One sees also in Janesville a spirit of brotherly love that is rare. This spirit was manifested in the recent Belders-Stout meetings and speaks well for the Christian people of this city.

The privileges granted women in allowing them to vote for school officers is another right thing. Citizens party is another indication that right is to prevail. An unusual sight was the notice of the election on a weekly church calendar. The minister took occasion to say to his members that all had people would vote and it was the duty of every good citizen to cast his vote in favor of the right, that the city might become a good clean city.

The mid-week Sabbath so cheerfully observed, shows that good men may introduce business into religion as well as into any other public concerns. Men make a business of observing Labor-day, the 4th of July and other days and why not do as much for the great interest that concerns us all?

There are many industries in and about Janesville, and with the coming of the beet sugar manufactory, the town ought to grow. The natural advantages are excellent and with a chance of securing employment, several hundred families may reasonably be expected to locate here within the next eighteen months.

Janesville, however, has some drawbacks, but of them we now remain silent.

Two lectures to be given at the First M. E. church, Tuesday, April 28, by Mrs. C. E. Hunt, national lecturer of the W. C. T. U., afternoon lecture at 3 o'clock in church parlors. Topic: Need of Mothers' Meetings. All are welcome. Mothers urged to be present and bring the little ones. Evening lecture in the auditorium; subject, "What Shall We Do With the American Boy?" Everyone invited and all those interested in children and child culture should not miss these lectures. The young people, too, will be interested; no admission; literature that will be of help to any home will be given free at each meeting. Be sure and hear this noted woman.

ON LONDON STREETS

ARMY OF MUSICIANS WHO AMUSE THE PUBLIC.

Most of Them Have a Hard Life—German Bands and "Nigger" Minstrels the Most Popular—Organ Grinders and Their Tunes.

(Special Correspondence.)

In all the great army of those who live to amuse the public, the street musicians of London are among the most to be pitied. Theirs is a hard life, even at its best. In summer, when the season is "on" and moneyed people throng the city, they manage to make a fairly comfortable living, but in winter, when the climate has settled down to its worst, when fog-laden air, that makes one's throat smart the moment he steps out into it, is all there is to breathe; when penetrating dampness goes through to the very marrow—then the lot of the street musician is not a pleasant one, and he is deserving of all the pennies and sympathy he can get, and more.

Street performers have no holidays; it is on bank holidays and Sundays, when the "Arrys and Arriets are enjoying the day of rest and recreation, that the street musician must reap his harvest. Many of them go up to Hampstead Heath or down to Kensington Oval or similar resorts if the day be a fine one.

On a wet day the average Londoner lounges about the street corners and public houses, and at such a time even the dreary music of the blind performers or the rollicking melody of the hurdy-gurdy is most welcome. One sees children lifting their little skirts on the sidewalks that would put many a music hall danseuse to shame, so graceful are the little tots.

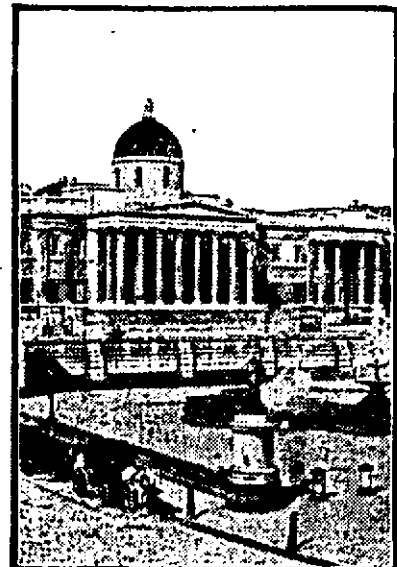

The street singer, too, has a hard time of it. Some young girls there are with shrill soprano voices, but the majority of street singers are past the prime of youth, and occasionally one hears a duet from an old couple of 50, the man sightless and led by the faithful wife, who sings alto to his tenor. Dragged and weary, their hopes of assistance rest upon the pity of the public rather than upon any pleasure their voices may give.

Some of the more antiquated members of the organ grinding fraternity have instruments as antique as themselves. But the majority of the piano certain streets, and the "Wacht am Rhein," "Donau Blau," "Marsellaise" and "God Save the King" are familiar selections. They never fail to draw an audience, no matter how hackneyed may be their repertoire.

Negro minstrels, in parties of four or more, haunt the thoroughfares leading off the Strand, and although they play for the greater part of the time in public houses, they are often seen outside the gallery entrance to some theater, entertaining the long line of people waiting for admission. They are always black "to a finish," and affect white straw sailor hats and jaunty colored neckties, even in winter, while they are about as much related to the negro from the Congo as to—well, the Esquimaux.

They really play with skill, and the singing forms the most attractive part of the program. "Way Down Upon the Swane River" and "Marsa's In the Cold, Cold Ground" are often called for by the audiences, while "You Are My Honey-suckle, I Am the Bee," is the latest success, together with "Lam, Lam, Lam," and "Hullo, Ma Honey." Many a man or woman who can but ill afford it rewards the musician with a hard-earned penny; it is their tribute to the music that stirs up within them something of that better life from which they have been, through force of circumstances, debarred forever.

The street performer is seen everywhere in London, from the Strand to Shoreditch, from Wimbledon to White-chapel, from Albert Gate to Aldgate, and from Mile End to Marylebone, he is always seen on corners and in public houses. There is no license required, and so long as the crowds that follow do not obstruct the sidewalks, so long as the musicians themselves are "quiet and orderly," though "quiet" is a misnomer, and refers only to their conduct, they are allowed to make music to their hearts' content.

TOLD OF FREDERICK THE GREAT

Two Good Stories Which Illustrate His Versatility.

In the course of some military evolutions Frederick the Great of Prussia, irritated by some mistake of a captain, ran after him with his stick in order to strike him. The captain ran away. The next morning the commanding officer reported to the king that the officer in question, one of the most efficient in the regiment, had sent in his papers. "Tell him to come to me," said the king. The officer in great perturbation, came. "Good morning, major," he apostrophized the officer, who was speechless with surprise. "I want to tell you of your promotion, but you ran so fast I could not catch you up. Good morning." Another time an officer attempted to get a comrade into bad odor with the king by telling his majesty that he was a drunkard. In a subsequent battle the latter's fitness was conspicuous, whereas his slanderer played a very poor part. When afterward he defiled past the king at the head of his regiment, his majesty called out to him in a voice of thunder: "The sooner you take a drink the better."

Argument for Segregation.

The differences in degrees in maturity between boys and girls in the freshman year is a fundamental reason for segregation, according to a statement just issued by Dr. W. R. Harper, president of the University of Chicago. Dr. Harper says: "When thrown together in a new environment on entrance to the university boys and girls become conscious of differences unnoticed, and the personal element creeps in too strongly for the best work. In the secondary school this is not the case, for the reason that the boys and girls there have been growing up together and do not notice that one group matures earlier than the other."

British "Public Utilities."

A comprehensive return of the financial workings of the "public utilities" undertaken in British towns and cities has just been given to the public through a government board. It covers the four years ended March 1902. The principal undertakings carried on by 299 corporations were: Markets, 238; water works, 193; cemeteries, 143; baths, 13, electric light, 102; gas works, 97; tramways, 45; harbors, 43. The aggregate net profits were $23,417,522.

Temperance People Encouraged.

At a recent meeting of the Semi-annual Pledge Association, in England, the secretary, G. H. F. Nye, was able to report a large accession of individual applications for pledge forms amounting to some 15,000. From Birmingham an application was read asking for 1,200 forms for one factory alone.

ANOTHER DOCTOR RECEIVES PLACE

Dr. Frederick Sutherland Is Appointed Interne at the Chicago Homeopathic Hospital.

Another young Janesville physician has been honored by an appointment as interne in a prominent Chicago hospital. On Saturday last Dr. Frederick E. Sutherland, son of Doctor and Mrs. Q. O. Sutherland, received his official appointment as interne at the Chicago Homeopathic hospital and will begin his year's work on July 1. His older brother, Dr. Charles Sutherland, was recently appointed as interne at the Cook county hospital for one year.

Important Place

Dr. Frederick Sutherland will go into a hospital which is one of the large ones for Chicago. During the last year over six thousand patients were admitted to its wards for treatment and three thousand nine hundred patients were treated as outside patients. The work is done by four internes and two alternates under the supervision of the governing board of physicians.

Great Teaching

The experience in this hospital is great for a young physician and an appointment carries with it the honor of having been chosen from a large number of applicants. The appointment was made from a large class of applicants by a competitive examination.

Valparaiso, Ind., April 27.—The post-mortem examination of the body of Martha Lawrence, who was found dead in bed at the home of Silas Beam, shows that death was due to strangulation. It was shown at the inquiry that Truman Beam and the girl had a quarrel the night previous to her death.

CATARRH A SERIOUS DISEASE

Cannot be Trifled With—Hymel the True and Only Guaranteed Cure.

Hymel should be used when any of the following symptoms are present. It cures by the simple and natural method of breathing healing and germ-killing balsams into the air passages and lungs. These symptoms show the presence of catarrhal germs in the mucous membrane of the nose, throat, bronchial tubes and the tissues of the lungs.

offensive breath
dryness of the nose
pain across the eyes
pain in back of the head
aching of the body
droppings in the throat
mouth open while sleeping
tickling back of the throat
formation of crusts in the throat dryness of the throat
loss of strength
coughing
coughing worse nights and mornings
loss in vital force
a feeling of tightness across the upper part of the chest

To breathe through a nose and throat filled with catarrhal germs, means that the air going into the lungs is filled with catarrhal poison. It is no wonder that every organ of the system shows disease and decay as a result.

Do not dump nauseating drugs into the stomach to cure catarrh; breathe Hymel and quick relief and complete cure would follow. If it should fall The People's Drug Co. will return your money without any questions.

It Cures Colds, Coughs, Sore Throat, Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Asthma. A certain cure for Consumption in first stages and a sure relief in advanced stages. Use at once. You will see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Sold by dealers everywhere. Bottles 25 cents and 50 cents.

TOBACCO WORK NEARLY DONE

MANY OF THE PACKERS ALMOST THROUGH.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT FOR YEAR

Some Trouble in Securing Good Plants, and Late Season May Delay Work.

Briefly told there is not much doing in the local market. A little picking up is being done, but the leaf picked up is small in quantity and some of it poor in quality. The growers in this section have their seed sown, but the weather has not been favorable for its coming up. From present appearances it is probable that there will be a slightly increased acreage over last year.

Nine assorting rooms are running at this writing, but the doors will all be closed in a few weeks. Some old goods are on the move. Frank S. Baines having sold 126 cases of 1901, while L. B. Carle & Son have purchased 120 cases of 1901, from an Evansville firm. The local dealers are naturally concerned in the tobacco legislation at Madison this winter and consequently what the Edgerton Reporter has to say regarding the Dahl bill will be read with much interest.

After stating in a general way, that legislation such as that proposed by Mr. Dahl, regarding the taxation of tobacco, would result in more injury to the tobacco industry than could be repaired in years, the Reporter says: His proposition in brief is to take the assessing authority away from local communities, placing them with the state tax commission to fix the valuation on leaf tobacco. There could be only one result from making such radical departure in the methods of assessing tobacco for taxation purposes—that is there would be no tax at all derived from the tobacco purchased by non-residents in this state. Fully three-quarters of the crop of every year is purchased by eastern dealers, who only sort, pack and store it here, pay local taxes on the same, purely as a matter of convenience, as the tobacco eventually goes to the eastern manufacturers for consumption. If taxes were raised to an unreasonable figure the tobacco would surely be moved out as it is received from the growers and the handling and storage would go to the other markets. Thus the tobacco handling towns of Wisconsin would not only lose the taxes now paid in by these dealers, but also the wages paid for labor in handling the crop. The loss would also include the insurance, commissions, storage charges, etc., aggregating well towards a million dollars a year. In his vain hope of squeezing a few dollars more of taxes out of the tobacco industry, Mr. Dahl's measure would lose thousands of dollars now coming into the state. "Killing the hen that lays the golden egg" was told about years ago. Mr. Dahl may not have heard about it.

Assembly Committee
In his argument before the assembly committee in urging the passage of his bill, Mr. Dahl stated many things that were not so regarding the valuation of tobacco in different local markets, incidentally bringing out the fact that the valuation in his own country has been placed so high as to drive all storage of non-resident tobacco out of his section. Mr. Strause, of the American Cigar Co., plainly told the committee what would happen in case taxation was made unreasonable, when he said his company would do just as they have been doing in the Connecticut Valley this season—shipping the leaf south to be handled by cheap negro labor, rather than pay an outrageous tax. His company could afford to close all their warehouses in this state, and have their goods handled elsewhere. When the assessor came around on May 1st, there would be no tobacco in Wisconsin to be taxed, legislation that drives business out of the state is not the best kind to enact.

The Dahl Bill
The Dahl bill referred to in the foregoing, has already passed the assembly and is now before the senate, for adoption or rejection. According to the Madison Democrat, Sutter Brothers of Chicago, have a peculiar mortgage case on at Cambridge, in Dane county. A crop was purchased of a farmer in that vicinity, but before the payment was made it developed that the crop had been mortgaged to two parties. Both mortgages were given and recorded on the same hour of the same day. Notice was served upon Sutter Brothers to delay payment until the court had decided the priority of the mortgages. This was two months ago, and no decision has been arrived at yet. Payment will be made to the party getting the court's decision.

A review of the leading markets reveals the fact that but little business is being transacted. Edgerton reports the closing of three of the largest warehouses for the 1902 handling. The shipments out of storage reached 15 car loads, 681 cases to all points. In the Connecticut Valley but few sales are reported, while Lancaster, Hamsburg and Baldwinville report a quiet week, with the Ohio town slightly ahead in buying. New York says the domestic leaf market has been utterly devoid of interesting features, but that the sales of Sumatra were brisk and that the Havana market was especially lively, with a steady inquiry for Connecticut shade grown leaf, which is proving a satisfactory seller.

Wonderful Storm: Twenty bushels of cut tissue paper, one-eighth, one-quarter and one-half inch square, are said to be used in the snowstorm effect shown in the second act of "Janice Meredith," in which Janice aids her escape from Charles Fownes. The bits paper are forced through a tube by an electric blower, creating an almost perfect counterfeit of a blinding snow storm.

NIGHT POLICEMAN IN SPRING BROOK

Residents in That Section of the City Think That They Should Have One.

Spring Brook people are suggesting the propriety of having a night policeman or patrolman down there to look out for things. As there is now quite an investment in factory buildings and equipment in that section they think perhaps that it might be a good idea to have a night guardian for these and other interests.

PRETTY WEDDING AT FISHER HOME

MISS ETHEL FISHER WEDS MR. SAMUEL BRADEN.

IT WAS A HIGH NOON AFFAIR

The Ceremony Was Performed by Rev. Henderson, Amid a Bower of Flowers.

One of the prettiest home weddings occurred this noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fisher, 163 Terrace street, when Miss Ethel Isabella Fisher became the bride of Mr. Samuel N. Braden of Minneapolis, Minn. Rev. Henderson of the Presbyterian church was the officiating clergyman and the full Presbyterian ring service was used.

Noon Wedding
The wedding was at high noon, Miss Pearl Willey presiding at the piano. It was sharp twelve when the bridal party entered the parlor, where a huge wedding bell was suspended in the background of luxuriant palms and ferns, forming a delightful wedding altar. The groom was attended by Mr. Everett Fisher, a brother of the bride and Miss Minerva Fisher, a sister, was maid of honor. Rev. Henderson said the words that made them man and wife and an informal reception followed when the bride and groom were warmly congratulated and wished future happiness.

Charming Luncheon
A delightful four course luncheon was served immediately after, under the supervision of Mrs. Harry Pittman. The dining room was appropriately decorated with smilax and cut flowers and the entire house was one mass of cut flowers and palms, which had been tastefully arranged by florist Amerpohl.

Notable Feature
One of the most notable and pleasant features of the entire ceremony, was the fact that the brides two grand fathers, James Cleland and Seth Fisher were present at the ceremony, and at the wedding luncheon at the table opposite the bride and groom. These two aged men, are 83 and 79 years respectively.

Wedding Party
The wedding party consisted of fifty immediate friends of the bride and groom, and relatives. There was an abundance of proof of their love for the young couple in the many elaborate presents which have been received. Mr. and Mrs. Braden left at 1:40 for an extended wedding trip after which they will be at home to their friends at 3113, Bloomington Avenue, Minneapolis, after May 12th, where the groom is a prosperous business man.

Is Well Known
Mrs. Braden will be remembered as one of Janesville's most popular school teachers and church workers. She is a graduate of the high school class of 1896 and was a member of the teaching force here for six years. She has also been closely identified with the Junior Band of the Presbyterian church.

Hendricks-Quirk
James Quirk, the son of Michael Quirk, and Miss Hattie Hendricks, the daughter of John Hendricks, were wedded this morning at the parsonage at St. Mary's church by Father W. A. Goebel. The ceremony was performed at seven o'clock this morning.

ANNUAL MEETING TO BE HELD ON TUESDAY EVENING

Y. M. C. A. Will Have Its Yearly Meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Rooms.

TWO BOYS GO TO WAUKESHA

MILKE BROTHERS CONVICTED OF STEALING WHISKY COCKTAILS.

ONE BOY IS ALLOWED TO GO

A Boy Out on Parole from the Industrial School, Implicated in the Robbery.

Of the four small boys who were arrested for breaking into a North-Western freight car a week ago yesterday, two were this morning sentenced by Judge Fifield in the municipal court to be committed to the industrial school at Waukesha until they are twenty-one years of age; one of the others was released on his good behavior to be given another hearing in three months; the fourth will be tried on Wednesday.

Sent to Waukesha

Fred Milke and Max Milke were sent to the industrial school. Their incorrigibility was plainly proved by the testimony given against them. John Keating was younger than the others, and on the statement of his father that he could control him, he was allowed to go, to appear in the court July 20. John Wolcott, the fourth, was on parole from the school at Waukesha when he took part in the car breaking, and Judge Fifield did not feel inclined to give him a cumulative sentence on the evidence before the court, and he recommended to jail until Wednesday when he will again be heard, with J. J. Cunningham to defend him.

Another Boy Implicated

It appeared from the stories which the boys told, in which they admitted breaking into the car, which was standing in the sand pit near the black bridge, and taking a quantity of whiskey, that a fifth boy, other than the rest, was also connected with the robbery. He was a Marsden boy, who succeeded in getting out of the city in time to avoid being brought into court.

Jury Drawn Today

A list of jurymen was drawn today to serve in the trial of the state of Wisconsin against Eldahl, accused of assault and battery. John Higgins was before the court, charged with drunkenness. He pleaded guilty and was fined $4 and costs which he paid.

...Forty Years AGO...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Monday, April 27, 1863.—The new programme at Vicksburg is said to be an advance upon that place below the city, by way of Black river, which is navigable by gunboats to the railroad crossing, twelve miles in the area of Vicksburg, toward Jackson. The passage of another installment of Grant's army in the face of the Vicksburg batteries will give him a pretty large force to operate with on this route, and important news from that locality may be expected soon.

There is a military court of inquiry in session at this time in St. Louis, investigating the cotton speculations of our army officers. We do not see much of the testimony, but from stray scraps which reach us there can be no question that enormous frauds have been practiced through the connivance of army officers. If the greed of acquiring wealth in speculations of this kind continues to follow our armies there is no need of a prophet to foretell the fate of the country. Corruption will finally bring on ruin. We must reform ourselves in this particular, and we trust that the investigation will not only expose the guilty but that a radical change will be made by the government in dealing with rebel property, as well as with those in its employ who neglect their military duties to gather wealth out of the misfortunes of the country.

Gen. Ashoth, commanding at Columbus, Ky., has ordered all persons at Cairo and vicinity arrested who in any manner express sympathy for the rebels, or aid deserters. Such persons are to be forwarded to the military prison at Columbus. He says there can be no distinction be recognized between rebels and battle and traitors resisting the law at home.

Coming Attractions.

William Bonelli and Rose Stahl will present their elaborate production of the dramatic version of Paul Leicester Ford's popular Revolutionary romance, "Janice Meredith" in this city at the Myers Grand tonight. The title role of course will be played by Miss Stahl. The production will be staged with the same elaborate detail as when seen during its long run at Wallack's theatre in New York City. Mr. Ford's story is considered by literary critics the best treating of the revolutionary war ever published in this country. Its popularity is certainly well attested by the fact that it has a circulation of over 265,000 copies, the largest accredited to any American novel during the past ten years. The dramatic story of "Janice Meredith" was written by Edward E. Rose, the well known playwright, in collaboration with Mr. Ford. It is presented in four acts, the first showing the farm of Squire Meredith in Greenwood, N. J. in April 1775; a living room in the Meredith homestead Christmas eve, 1776; the headquarters of Col. Rahl, the Hessian commander, at Trenton, N. J., Christmas day, 1776, and a dismantled house in Yorktown on the day of Cornwallis' surrender to Washington. This is a play which, intensely interesting in itself, especially appeals to every American, for it portrays a strong stage picture of some very stirring and most important scenes in connection with the birth of liberty in America. William Bonelli will be the "Jack Brereton"

Volney Wood
The death of Volney Wood removes from Johnston one of our noblest and most honored and useful citizens. While engaged in his daily work he was suddenly stricken down. In the morning he ate his breakfast with the family and was in his usual health. At eight o'clock he suffered a stroke of apoplexy from which he did not rally, dying three hours later.

Mr. Wood was born in Pennsylvania 73 years ago. At the age of 10 years he removed with his parents to the state of Wisconsin, locating at Milton. Afterwards removing to Johnston where he lived until the time of his death. Aug. 23, 1849 he was united in marriage to Miss Catherine Louise Austin who survives him. To them were born five girls and one boy. Volney Grant, the only son, died in 1891 and Mrs. Dr. Cary of Whitewater, who died in 1899. Four daughters still live, Mrs. E. Carter of Johnston, Mrs. E. P. Keith of Algonia, Ia., Mrs. David Zull of Whitewater and Miss Evaline who is still at home.

Mr. Wood was a member of the Rock Prairie United Presbyterian church. He had also been identified with the public affairs of the community for many years. For 20 years he was secretary of the Johnston Insurance society and also served as assessor for twenty years. He was honorable in all his dealings and was universally respected and loved. He led a quiet beautiful christian life such as commended his religion to all who knew him.

ILLINOIS MOB LYNCHES NEGRO

BULLETS PIERCE VICTIM'S BODY

Leaving the Swinging Corpse, Enraged Men Make a Raid on Camp of Blacks and Start a Race War in Which Many Fall.

Thebes, Ill., April 27.—An attack on the 10-year-old daughter of Branson Davis, a farmer, by a young negro whose name is not known, caused a lynching and race riot at the little village of Santa Fe.

The negro, it is believed, was a member of a gang of negroes working on a bridge over the Mississippi river. After he had been hanged an angry mob of farmers raided the camp at the bridge, exchanged several volleys of shots with the negroes and wounded several. None of the white men was hurt.

Mother to the Rescue.
Branson Davis lives one-half mile east of Santa Fe, a small village near here. While his daughter was in the barnyard the negro spoke to her. She ran, but he seized her and her screams brought her mother to the rescue. The negro fled.

Officers were notified and were soon in pursuit. News of the assault speedily spread among the neighboring farmers and resulted in an angry mob starting in search of the assailant. The negro was meanwhile captured and was being brought to Santa Fe, when the mob of farmers was met.

Riddle the Body.
A scurrying resulted, during which the farmers secured the negro. He confessed, but begged for mercy. Without a word the mob started with the prisoner toward the new bridge being constructed across the Mississippi, where he was hanged to an oak tree without delay. After the body had dangled in the air a few minutes it was riddled with bullets.

The officers endeavored to disperse the mob, but their efforts were unavailing. A rush was made for the colony of several hundred negroes employed on the bridge and living in tents nearby.

Blacks Open Fire.
The negroes saw the mob coming and opened fire. A fusillade followed and the whites fired with such effect that many of the negroes fell. None of the mob was injured, and it was not known how seriously the negroes were wounded. The mob pressed forward, notwithstanding the steady fire, until the negroes turned and fled toward a nearby wood, taking their wounded with them.

The mob then fell upon the tents and burned them. After accomplishing a general work of destruction the mob dispersed. Extra police were sworn in and the village is under heavy guard. The excitement is intense.

LAY DUST FOR THE PRESIDENT

Nebraskans Sprinkle White Gale

Whirls Sand About Roosevelt.
Grand Island, Neb., April 27.—President Roosevelt experienced a genuine western dust storm in Grand Island, but the city's forces were equal to the occasion. When the wind began to blow at terrific speed the firemen surrounded the president's car and with hose and fire engines soaked the ground, thus laying the dust in the vicinity of the train.

The president's train was run into the yards and the president and his party remained aboard. The president attended St. Stephen's Episcopal church. The sermon was preached by the rector, Rev. Louis A. Arthur.

In the afternoon the president went for a horseback ride, accompanied by Senator Dietrich. The two men rode out to Taylor's sheep ranch and then around to the soldiers' home, where the president greeted the veterans.

Baby

Weighed Only Five Pounds.

Restless, Cried Day and Night.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Did Wonders, Cured Her.

A little over two years ago I had a little, nervous baby who weighed only five pounds at birth. At first she was restless and cross and after she was four weeks old she cried day and night, and would not sleep without narcotics. She was so nervous that we did not dare to move when she did sleep a short time, as she would wake screaming as though she was going to have a fit. We called a doctor; he called it infantile colic; said he could relieve her, could not cure her. After a short time the effect of his medicine wore off and I was in despair. I tried all known home remedies and innumerable patent medicines. At last I gave her Dr. Miles' Nervine and she was easy and slept without narcotics. Since that time I have used a dozen bottles and would not be without it. I am now giving it to another baby and it has the same effect, immediate relief always.—Mrs. Vincent Zidek, Verona, N. D.

"Three years ago I was taken with nervous prostration, which brought on heart trouble, and my heart would palpitate at every little noise. I had smothering spells so that at times I would nearly sink away. I got one bottle each of Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure and I could feel good results from the first few doses. They have since effected a permanent cure. I recommend Dr. Miles' Remedies to all who suffer as I did."—Mrs. G. C. James, Fairmont, Nebraska.
